

2023-2024 At a Glance

32,110

TOTAL OBSERVATIONS

SNOW
18,455

MIX
3,593

RAIN
10,062

1,684 ACTIVE OBSERVERS

That's 615 more observers than last season!

MOST OBSERVATIONS FROM A SINGLE STORM:

March 1-3, 2024

2,099

REGION THAT SENT
THE MOST REPORTS
IN ONE DAY:

Sierra Nevada

2023-2024 Shoutouts

1 Central Basin and Range 5,517 reports

2 Northeastern Highlands 4,566 reports

3 Sierra Nevada 4,402 reports

LEADERBOARD

These observers submitted the most reports out of all 1,684 participants this season.

| | | |
|--------------------------|-----------------|------------|
| Patrick Thorson | Sierra Nevada | 676 |
| Chris Gotschalk | Western Montana | 471 |
| SV | The Netherlands | 440 |
| Karen O | Rocky Mountains | 388 |
| Marley Jennings | Northeast US | 343 |
| Mariah Blackhorse | Great Basin | 329 |
| Robert R | Sierra Nevada | 284 |
| Randall Bursk | Rocky Mountains | 280 |
| Bill Locke | Western Montana | 279 |
| Erin Grogan | Northeast US | 271 |
| Average Observer | All regions | 19 |

ELEVATIONAL DIVERSITY SUPERSTARS

GREATEST VARIETY OF ELEVATIONS:

Craig Hall
Sierra Nevada

HIGHEST ELEVATION:

Lauren H

Rocky Mountains

11,993 ft

GREATEST RANGE OF ELEVATIONS:

Nayoung Hur

Rocky Mountains

9,849 ft
between highest and lowest reports

Submitted from:

0-1k ft 6k-7k ft
1k-2k ft 7k-8k ft
4k-5k ft 8k-9k ft
5k-6k ft 9k-10k ft

